Description

This vibrant space showcases a diverse collection of artworks spanning various mediums and styles, celebrating local and national talent and inspiring creativity. From captivating paintings to intricate sculptures, immerse yourself in the rich artistic heritage of the region and experience the beauty that transcends boundaries at this captivating museum. Miniatures Conjure Delights March 22, 2024 – May 5, 2024

Miniature art is inherently delightful. It makes you slow down, take a closer look. For this show, Museum Curator, Angela Green, and Micro Gallery Curator, Elaine Luther, have partnered to create a group show of 14 different solo shows – each one in a miniature box gallery.

American Photography May 10, 2024 – July 28, 2024

In a museum-to-museum loan, GMoA will display select pieces from the Evansville Museum from the American Photography donation project. The inventory of images reflects a wide range of contemporary perspectives and an assortment of concepts, styles, and photographic materials. The Garrett Museum of Art will have 51 of these photographs on display
